New York Times Chronicles History of President's Lawsuits Against Client Palm Beach County

The New York Times

05.06.17

The New York Times featured a lengthy article in its May 6 edition on the President's many legal and land use battles with the Town of Palm Beach and Palm Beach County, Florida. The article highlighted several lawsuits and other disputes in which the Firm successfully represented Palm Beach County, the sponsor of Palm Beach International Airport. We are pleased that these disputes—stretching back more than 25 years—have been resolved in our client's favor.
