We are excited to share that the following attorneys were recently selected for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America®:

- Polly Jessen for Construction Law
- Steve Kaplan for Land Use & Zoning Law
- Lori Potter for Litigation - Environmental Law
- Sarah Rockwell for Land Use & Zoning Law

Additionally, Steve Kaplan (Land Use and Zoning Law) was selected as a Denver "Lawyer of the Year" in his respective practice industry. This is the second time that Steve has been recognized as "Lawyer of the Year" in this practice area.

Best Lawyers® designates "Lawyers of the Year" in high-profile legal specialties in large legal communities. Only a single lawyer in each specialty within each metropolitan area is honored as the "Lawyer of the Year." Best Lawyers® compiles its lists of outstanding attorneys by conducting peer-review surveys in which thousands of lawyers confidentially evaluate their professional peers.
