

Eric Smith Elected to Aviation Council of Pennsylvania Board and Presents at Annual Conference

11.18.20

During the 40th Annual Pennsylvania Aviation Conference, held in October, Eric Smith was elected to another term as a board member for the Aviation Council of Pennsylvania (ACP). The purpose of the ACP is to represent the Pennsylvania aviation and aerospace community in matters involving government and private sector interests; to improve and promote aviation in partnership with local, state and federal government; and to increase and enhance public awareness of aviation and aerospace.

Eric also gave two presentations at the annual conference, Federal Aviation Administration Compliance Basics and Airports & Financially Distressed Stakeholders – Legal & Practical Considerations for Airport Sponsors
