

Peter Kirsch Quoted in Airport Revenue News

Airport Revenue News

May 2010

Kaplan Kirsch & Rockwell successfully defended Martin County, Florida in a class action seeking noise damages for operations at a busy general aviation airport on the east coast of Florida. The Firm successfully argued that the case should not be certified as a class because noise damages are unique to each property owner. Peter Kirsch discussed the case and its implications for airports nationwide in an article by Airport Revenue News.