Kaplan Kirsch & Rockwell Helps Archaeologists Defend Grand Staircase-Escalante and Bears Ears National Monuments

11.20.18

On November 19, 2018, the country's preeminent archaeological organizations—the American Anthropological Association (AAA), the Archaeological Institute of America (AIA), and the Society for American Archaeology (SAA)—filed an amicus brief opposing the President's ultra vires rescission of Grand Staircase-Escalante and Bears Ears National Monuments. Our firm proudly represents the organizations in this effort to protect America's unique historic and cultural heritage.

Please visit the American Anthropological Association's website for the press release.
