

KAPLAN KIRSCH ROCKWELL

ACRP Insight Event - Public-Private Partnerships: What Are the Lessons Learned?

Transportation Research Board's Airport Cooperative Research Program
February 2020

The National Academy of Sciences Transportation Research Board's Airport Cooperative Research Program recently published Conference Proceedings on the Web 26: Public-Private Partnerships: What Are the Lessons Learned? as a summary of the presentations and discussions at an ACRP Insight Event held July 10-11, 2019, in Washington, DC. The event brought nearly 100 thought leaders and airport executives together to discuss opportunities and challenges in implementing public-private partnerships at airports. Kaplan Kirsch & Rockwell partner Peter Kirsch chaired the event.

For a copy of the proceedings, click the image below.