Ready, Set, Go: Legal Considerations in Implementing a Safety Management System

Airport Magazine

April/May 2011

The FAA has initiated a significant regulatory effort to mandate Safety Management Systems throughout the aviation system. In an article for Airport Magazine, Peter Kirsch discusses how airports can prepare for the new regulations and minimize the uncertainty and liability that could accompany the new SMS requirements.