To determine these rankings, thousands of in-depth interviews with clients are conducted to assess the reputations and expertise of business lawyers around the world. Chambers Global covers 180 countries offering insight into the top firms and lawyers practicing internationally.

About ELN

The Environmental Law Network (ELN) is the first environmental law firm network that makes local representation available nationwide. Through ELN, more than 250 environmental attorneys share ideas, information, experiences, and contacts to increase the value of legal representation for their respective clients. ELN also has foreign affiliates in Argentina, Brazil, Canada, France, Italy, Mexico, the United Kingdom and Spain. Leaders in each of the member firms average more than 20 years of experience in the field.
